Finding More House

More House is effectively located at the heart of the university campus in the village of Heslington, south-east of York city-centre.

To reach More House

Heslington can be reached from York city centre on foot (about half an hour's walk), by car, by bike, or by bus. Bus number 4 departs from the railway station approximately every 10 minutes (the journey takes about 20 minutes and passes via the main bus station in Rougier Street). Other services (6, 44, C2, 27, 27a, 128 & 129) operate from elsewhere. Visitors should alight from the bus outside Derwent College/Science Park, near to Heslington Hall and Heslington Church. A taxi ride from the city centre to More House costs about £6-8; if the driver doesn't know More House, ask to be dropped near to Eden's Court (a student accommodation block).

Once in Heslington you'll find More House on the road where Main Street meets Heslington Lane (going towards Fulford). From the gates of Heslington Hall, walk two minutes down the road to the right which runs between the Hall and The Stables. More House is the two-storey building on the left with bay windows; it has a traffic-calming chicane outside, Catholic Chaplaincy written above the door, and More House - Carmelites signposted on the fence.

Drivers approaching York from the A64 should turn off at one of the exits marked University (A19 or A1079), in order to avoid the city centre. Subsequent turns are also signposted. Visitors coming from other directions should either take the Selby road (A19) to Fulford and turn towards Heslington along Heslington Lane or Broadway (approaching from Fulford, More House is on the right after Eden's Court), or take the Hull Road and turn right at the junction with Green Dykes Lane which leads to University Road. Satellite Navigation systems can use the postcode YO10 5DX to locate the house, but note that this postcode covers a fairly wide area. Parking near to More House is often restricted; drivers are advised to park in neighbouring lay-bys (when this is permitted), or on the university campus (for a small fee except at evenings and weekends). Please check with the community before parking in the driveway next to the house, as clear access is usually needed for the chaplain on call at the hospital.

In case of difficulties locating More House, please call the house number (01904 410446) or the Carmelite Projects & Publications Office (01904 411521).

Access and facilities

The lower floor of More House (chapel, library, sitting room, kitchen and garden) is accessible to most wheelchair users (if the chair can be lifted up the two steps in front of the building). The meeting room on the first floor is not accessible to wheelchairs.
