

GENERAL NOTES

The Liturgical Ordo here presented is that recommended for the friar, lay Carmelite and other communities of the British Carmelite Province serving England, Scotland and Wales. The following points should be noted:

1. For this Liturgical Year until Advent 2008:
    Sunday and Festive Lectionary:     Cycle A
    Weekday Lectionary:                 Cycle II

2. Abbreviations:
    DO             Divine Office, appropriate volume
    CS             Carmelite Supplement 1987
    NCS            New Carmelite Supplement 1993
    EP             Evening Prayer
    Mem            Memorial

3. The 'DO' page references are for the offices of Morning and Evening Prayer in the three-volume Divine Office. The numbers in brackets refer to the Morning and Evening Prayer Book.

4. On Ferias (ordinary days) and most Memorias use the Psalter for the prescribed week in conjunction with the reference in the Divine Office or Morning and Evening Prayer Book. For Feasts and Solemnities follow the indications given in the proper (the part towards the end where the feast days are found).

- ALWAYS TAKE NOTE OF THESE REFERENCES FIRST.

5. At Midday Prayer on Solemnities, the Antiphons and Psalms are as noted in the Proper: on Feasts the Hymn, Antiphons and Psalms are normally from the weekday Psalter, unless otherwise noted: the rest is from the Proper or Common. On Ferias and Memorias the whole of Midday Prayer, including the Prayer, is taken from the Feria, unless otherwise noted.

6. The Anniversaries given are those of deceased friar members of the Province, of the Blackburn Nuns, and of the Leaven, together with some others who have made a significant contribution to the life of the Carmelite Family in Britain.

7. On Ferias in Advent & Lent, Memorias are celebrated as follows, if desired: at Morning Prayer and Evening Prayer, after the prayer, the conclusion is omitted and the Antiphon & Prayer of the Saint is said with its conclusion.
8. Italics indicate Carmelite Feasts and Anniversaries.
9. Celebrations which are particular to a specific diocese are not included in this Ordo but will be found in the local diocesan directory or yearbook

Please notice that the solemnities such as the Epiphany, the Ascension and Corpus Christi (and in 2008 St. Joseph) have been transferred.

Days of Prayer appointed by the Bishops Conference of England & Wales have been added to the Ordo.

Optional Memorias in the Carmelite Calendar

Carmelite Solemnities, Feasts and Memorias are listed in the Ordo. It is not the tradition in the communities of the British Province to observe Optional Memorias and for this reason they are not included in the listing in this Ordo. They are, however, memorials which are proper to the Carmelite Order so for those who wish to commemorate them they are listed here:

By ancient tradition the Carmelite Order celebrates the following feasts of the general calendar with an additional title – nothing, however, is added to the Office of the day:

19th March St. Joseph

Principal Protector of the Carmelite Order (transferred in 2008 to 15th March)

26th July Sts. Joachim and Anne

Secondary Protectors of the Carmelite Order

We are awaiting announcement of the feast days of recent beati (Carmelite Martyrs of Catalonia and Mother Maria Candelaria)
